ABSTRACT

This is a statement of policy on illicit drugs and alcohol for Saint John's College, Annapolis, Maryland, to be distributed to students and employees. Initially the terms individual, student, employee, and illicit drug are formally defined. The section on alcoholic beverages lists ten policies regarding individual conduct and possession by students and employees, distribution at school functions, and the consequences following violations. The section on illicit drugs addresses manufacture, possession, use and distribution of illicit drugs by students and employees along with the consequences following violations. Four appendices provide pertinent supplemental information: Appendix A presents a summary description of Maryland state law relating to alcohol; Appendix B gives a brief description of the physiological effects of alcohol; Appendix C is a Student Manual Supplement on the use of alcohol and drugs to replace current portions of the Student Manual; Appendix D describes Federal trafficking penalties for substances covered by the Controlled Substances Act; and Appendix E gives community substance abuse program information. The Network for Drug Free Colleges/ERIC/HE Project

The ERIC Clearinghouse on Higher Education has been given federal funds to process a special collection of policy, program and curriculum documents produced by the Network of Colleges and Universities Committed to the Elimination of Drug and Alcohol Abuse, a coalition of institutions initiated by the Department of Education, Office of Educational Research and Improvement in response to the 1989 Drug Free Schools and Communities Act.

Major objectives of the project are to:

- increase access to the information on programs, policies, and curricula developed by Network member institutions;
- encourage the use of the ERIC system by Network member institutions;
- improve the Network's ability to know about, and share information on activities at member institutions; and
- test a model for collaboration with ERIC that other national agencies might adopt.

All Network/HE Project documents are tagged with the following Identifier appearing in the IDEN Field:

To All Students and Employees:

Attached for your information is a statement of policy of St. John's College in Annapolis, Maryland, regarding the possession, distribution and use of alcoholic beverages and illicit drugs on campus and at all College activities on and off campus. This policy statement is effective immediately and each of you is required to be familiar with its contents and to comply with it.

In order to comply with applicable law, the policy statement recites that it will be reviewed at least once every two years. However, it is my intent that the impact of the policy upon the College community will be closely watched over the next several weeks and throughout the current semester. During this initial period, the assistant deans, the Dean and I will fairly consider all reasonable suggestions from students and employees regarding the possible modification of the attached policy statement, particularly with regard to student parties and other College activities, which might improve the application of the policy without diluting compliance with the employee and student standards of conduct contained in paragraphs 2, 7, and 12.

STATEMENT OF COLLEGE POLICY

The following policy is hereby adopted and effective immediately at St. John's College in Annapolis, Maryland.[1/]

This policy statement will distibuted to all students and employees each year and will be reviewed at least once every two years to determine its effectiveness, implement changes if they are needed, and to ensure that the disciplinary sanctions described in this policy statement are consistently enforced.

Definitions

For purposes of this policy statement:

Individual means a natural person;

Student means an individual who is taking one or more classes in the undergraduate program or in the Graduate Institute of St. John's College, but

Note:

1 This policy is promulgated pursuant to the following statutes and regulations: (i) The "Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989" (Pub. L. 101-226); (ii) The regulations of the Secretary of Education entitled "Drug-Free Schools and Campuses," 34 CFR Part 86, as published on August 16, 1990 at 55 FR 33580 et seq.; (iii) The "Drug-Free Workplace Act of 1988 (Pub. L. 100-690, Title V, Subtitle D 41 U.S.C. 701 et seq.); and (iv) The regulations of the Secretary of Education entitled "Drug-Free Workplace Requirements; Notice and Final Rules," 34 CFR Part 85, as published on May 25, 1990 at 55 FR 21679 et seq.

does not mean an individual enrolled in the continuing education classes on the Annapolis campus;

Employee means an individual who is on the payroll of St. John's College, including all officers, tutors, associates, directors, managers, supervisors, student aides, and all others, regardless of whether the individual works on a regular, temporary, part-time or full-time basis for the College, and the term also includes contractors who are directly engaged in work on the Annapolis campus who are on the College payroll;

Illicit drug means a controlled substance in schedules I through V of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 812), as further defined by regulation at 21 CFR 1308.15 and as listed on the tables set forth at Appendix D to this policy statement.

Alcoholic Beverages

1. All individuals on the St. John's campus in Annapolis, Maryland, and all individuals taking part in activities of the College (whether or not such activities occur on the College campus) are expected to obey all applicable laws regarding the possession, use, and distribution of alcoholic beverages. Appendix A to this policy statement presents a summary of the applicable laws of Maryland.

2. The possession or use of alcoholic beverages by any individual under 21 years of age on the College campus in Annapolis or by any individual under 21 years of age as a part of any of the activities of the College (whether or not such activities occur on the campus), violates the laws of Maryland, is therefore contrary to College policy and is strictly prohibited. The distribution of alcoholic beverages to an individual under 21 years of age on the College campus in Annapolis or to an individual under 21 years of age as part of any of the activities of the College (whether or not such activities occur on the campus), violates the laws of Maryland, is therefore contrary to College policy and is strictly prohibited.

3. The possession, use, or distribution of alcoholic beverages on the College campus or at College activities (whether or not on the campus) in willful contravention of the laws of Maryland by any individual, other than a student or employee of the College, may, in the discretion of the President (or his or her designee), result in the temporary or permanent expulsion of that individual from the campus and from all College activities. Such individual may also be referred by the College to law enforcement officials for prosecution.

4. The willful violation of the standard of conduct stated in paragraph 2 by a student of the College will subject the student to a fine of $100 for the first violation, $200 for the second violation and, in the discretion of the Assistant Dean, suspension or expulsion for the third or subsequent violations. In every case a verbal warning may precede the first monetary penalty. A student may appeal a suspension or expulsion to the Dean and the Dean's decision to the President, all in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Student Manual. Multiple or flagrant violations of paragraph 2 by a student may also be referred by the College to law enforcement officials for possible prosecution. If the student is also an employee, the student will also be subject to the sanctions set forth in paragraph 5.

5. The willful violation of the standard of conduct stated in paragraph 2 by an employee of the College will cause a report of the violation and a letter of reprimand from the Dean or the President to be put in the employee's personnel record. Any such reports and letters will be considered in any performance evaluation of the employee. Multiple or flagrant violations of paragraph 2, in the discretion of the Dean or the President, may result in the suspension, with or without pay, or in the termination of employment. In the event of termination of employment, the employee may also be referred by the College to law enforcement officials for possible prosecution. If the employee is also a student, the employee will also be subject to the sanctions set forth in paragraph 4.

6. The consumption of alcoholic beverages, even if lawful, can adversely affect behavior, student and employee performance, and cause safety problems. The abuse of alcohol also poses a health risk. These effects and risks are described in Appendix B to this policy statement.

7. Therefore, except when an employee who is at least 21 years old is required as part of his or her job to attend and participate socially in a College activity where the lawful use of alcoholic beverages has been approved in accordance with paragraph 9, no employee may use or be under the influence of alcoholic beverages during the performance of his or her job.

8. The violation of the standard of conduct for employees stated in paragraph 7 will cause a report of the violation and a letter of reprimand from the Dean or the President to be put in the employee's personnel record. Any such reports and letters will be considered in any performance evaluation of the employee. Multiple or flagrant violations of paragraph 7, in the discretion of the Dean or the President, may result in the employee's suspension, with or without pay, in the requirement that the employee satisfactorily complete an alcohol abuse counseling program as a condition of continued employment, or in the termination of employment.

9. The lawful use and distribution of alcoholic beverages by any student, employee, alumni, or other member of the College community (including members of its Board of Visitors and Governors) who is at least 21 years of age, as a part of any of the social activities of the College in Annapolis, Maryland (whether or not such activities occur on the campus) is only permitted when such lawful use and distribution of alcoholic beverages at such activities is in accordance with the applicable provisions (if any) of the Student Manual, the Staff Manual, the Tutor Manual, or this policy statement (as such manuals or this policy statement may be amended from time to time), or except when such lawful use or distribution is in accordance with the express written provisions of the facility use or other authority granted by applicable College officials for each such activity.

10. The Student Manual Supplement at Appendix C to this policy statement describes the procedures by which the lawful use of alcoholic beverages will be authorized for student parties, the conditions which will govern such activities, and the sanctions and penalties which will apply to the violation of such procedures and conditions.

Illicit Drugs

11. All individuals on the St. John's campus in Annapolis, Maryland, and all individuals taking part in activities of the College (whether or not such activities occur on the College campus) are expected to obey all applicable laws regarding the possession, use, and distribution of illicit drugs. Appendix D to this policy statement summarizes the applicable legal sanctions under Federal law for the possession or distribution of illicit drugs. Appendix D also summarizes the health risks posed by illicit drugs.

12. The manufacture, possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs by any individual on the St. John's campus in Annapolis, Maryland, or by any individual as a part of any of the activities of the College (whether or not such activities occur on the campus) is contrary to College policy and strictly prohibited.

13. The manufacture, possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs on the College campus or at College activities (whether or not on the campus) by any individual, other than a student or employee of the College, will, in the discretion of the President (or his or her designee) result in the temporary or permanent expulsion of that individual from the campus and from all College activities. Such individual may also be referred by the College to law enforcement officials for prosecution.

14. The violation of the standard of conduct stated in paragraph 12 by a student of the College will subject the student, in the discretion of the Dean, to suspension or expulsion from the College. A student may appeal a suspension or expulsion to the President in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Student Manual. Violation of the standard of conduct stated in paragraph 12 by a student may also be referred by the College to law enforcement officials for possible prosecution. If the student is also an employee, the student will also be subject to the sanctions set forth in paragraph 15.

15. The violation of the standard of conduct stated in paragraph 12 by an employee of the College will, in the discretion of the Dean or the President, result in the suspension, with or without pay, in the requirement that the employee satisfactorily complete an alcohol abuse counseling program as a condition of continued employment, or in the termination of employment. In the event of termination of employment, the employee may also be referred by the College to law enforcement officials for possible prosecution. If the employee is also a student, the employee will also be subject to the sanctions set forth in paragraph 14.

Counseling, Treatment, and Rehabilitation Services

16. Appendix E describes the drug, alcohol counseling, treatment, and re-entry programs that are available to College employees and students in the Annapolis area.

APPENDIX A

This appendix contains a summary description of the laws of Maryland relating to the unlawful possession, use, and distribution of alcoholic beverages.

1. Maryland Annotated Code, Article 27, § 400A. It is unlawful for any person under the age of 21 to purchase, possess, transport or consume alcoholic beverages;

2. Maryland Annotated Code, Article 27, §§ 400 and 403. It is unlawful for any person under the age of 21 to knowingly and willfully make a misrepresentation or false statement as to his or her age in order to obtain alcoholic beverages or to induce the illegal sale or furnishing of alcoholic beverages;

3. Maryland Annotated Code, Article 27, § 401. It is unlawful for any person to obtain alcoholic beverages for consumption by an individual who is known to be under the age of 21; and

4. Maryland Annotated Code, Article 27, § 401A. It is unlawful for a person to furnish any alcoholic beverage to another person whom the person knows to be under 21, if the alcoholic beverage is furnished for the purpose of consumption by the person under 21, unless the alcoholic beverage is furnished for religious purposes or is furnished to a member of the same immediate family within a private residence and is consumed within a private residence.

Any person over 18 who violates these sections of the law is issued a civil citation and is subject to a fine of up to $500 for the first offense and up to $1,000 for a repeat offense. Prepayment of fines, prior to the issuance of a summons and a mandatory court appearance, is prohibited.

APPENDIX B

Alcohol consumption causes a number of marked changes in behavior. Even low doses significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car safely, increasing the likelihood that the driver will be involved in an accident. Low to moderate doses of alcohol also increase the incidence of a variety of aggressive acts, including spouse and child abuse. Moderate to high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher mental functions, severely altering a person's ability to learn and remember information. Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other depressants of the central nervous system, much lower doses of alcohol will produce the effects just described.

Repeated use of alcohol can lead to dependence. Sudden cessation of alcohol intake is likely to produce withdrawal symptoms, including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations, and convulsions. Alcohol withdrawal can be life-threatening. Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol, particularly when combined with poor nutrition, can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and the liver.

Mothers who drink alcohol during pregnancy may give birth to infants with fetal alcohol syndrome. These infants have irreversible physical abnormalities and mental retardation. In addition, research indicates that children of alcoholic parents are at greater risk than other youngsters of becoming alcoholics.

APPENDIX C

Student Manual Supplement

Effective October 1, 1990, this document shall supplement certain provisions of the St. John's College Student Manual, Annapolis, Maryland 1990-91, in the manner described below.

Section D. Use of Alcohol, of Part II, College Rules of Residence, are hereby deleted and there is substituted therefor the following:

> D. Alcoholic Beverages. Not less than once each school year, each student is given the College's statement of policy on the possession, distribution and use of alcoholic beverages on the campus and at College activities in Annapolis Maryland. Each student is deemed to be familiar with that policy statement and will be held accountable by the College for any violations of the Policy which he or she may commit. The provisions of this Student Manual are intended to supplement and elaborate upon the College policy statement. In the case of any inconsistency between the policy statement and these provisions, the policy statement shall govern.
> Paragraph 2 of the College policy statement on alcohol sets forth the applicable standard of conduct which students must observe:
> > "The possession, use, or distribution of alcoholic beverages by any individual on the College campus in Annapolis in contravention of the laws of Maryland, or by any individual as a part of any of the activities of the College (whether or not such activities occur on the campus) in contravention of the laws of Maryland, is contrary to College policy and strictly prohibited."
>
> Paragraph 4 of the College policy statement on alcohol sets forth the sanction and penalties to which a student who violates the standard of conduct set forth in paragraph 2:
> > "The willful violation of the standard of conduct stated in paragraph 2 [of the policy statement on alcoholic beverages] > will subject the student to a fine of $100 for the first violation, $200 for the second violation and, in the discretion of the Assistant Dean, suspension or expulsion for the third or subsequent violations. In every case a verbal warning may precede the first monetary penalty. A student may appeal a suspension or expulsion to the Dean and the Dean's decision to the President. Multiple or flagrant violations of paragraph 2 by a student may also be referred by the College to law enforcement officials for possible prosecution. If the student is also and employee, the student will also be subject to the sanctions set forth in paragraph 5 [of the policy statement]."

The College is deeply concerned about the problems of alcohol and drug abuse. In the discretion of the Assistant Dean, Dean, or President, a student's continued enrollment at the College may be conditioned on the students willingness to enter and successfully complete a alcohol or drug abuse counselling or treatment program.I. Student Social Events. All student social events (including but not limited to student parties) on the campus at which alcohol is to be served and at all student social events (including but not limited to student parties) which would constitute College activities off of the campus at which alcohol is to be served are to be registered in the Assistant Deans' Office at least 48 hours in advance of the event. A party registration form must be filed which will contain name(s) and signature(s) of the individual(s) responsible for the event, as well as the amount and kind of refreshments and beverages to be served, and the system to be used to insure that minors are not served alcohol. A seminar party at a tutor's home is one example of an off-campus student social event which would constitute a College Activity governed by these provisions. When the Assistant Deans ascertain that the event complies with the College policy statement on alcohol and with applicable provisons of the Student Manual, an approved copy of the registration form will be returned to the sponsoring individual(s).

II. Official College Activities and Events. At officially authorized College events where we anticipate that the majority of those attending would be of legal drinking age (e.g., Alumni receptions, Staff picnic, GI gatherings) all kinds of alcoholic beverages may be served. At officially sponsored faculty-student events, only beer or wine may be served.

III. Student Parties. [Note: A party is defined on page 18 of the Student Manual. In what follow, the penalties for non-observance are stated in parentheses, with the penalty for the first offense listed first,etc. In every case a verbal warning may precede the monetary penalty.]

A. Students must receive permission for parties from one of the Assistant Deans. This applies also to dorm parties. ($50, $100, $150) The only exception is a dorm party which alcohol is not served. Permission for any party to be held during the week (Sunday evening through Thursday evening) will not routinely be given.

B. No hard liquor may be served at student parties. ($25, $50, $75)

C. The total amount of beer and wine to be purchased must be approved in advance by one of the Assistant Deans. Additional alcoholic beverages may not be brought to these parties. ($100, $150, expulsion) The amount of alcohol approved will be equivalent to three or four drinks a party for each individual of drinking age at the party who chooses to drink. This is intended to be about one drink an hour. See Appendix C to this Student Manual to determine the effects of that quantity on people of differing body weights. A drink is defined as 12 ounces of beer or 5 ounces of wine.

D. On Friday nights on which a lecture is given, parties may not begin until 11 p.m. On Fridays when a concert is given, parties may not begin until 10:30 p.m. ($25, $50, $75)

E. The availability of wine and beer may not be included in the advertisement for any party. ($15, $25, $40)

F. Except under special circumstances, all events at which wine or beer is to be served must be held indoors. ($25, $50, $75)

G. Events at which alcohol is served must end by 3:00 a.m. The distribution of alcohol must end at least 45 minutes before the end of the party. ($40, $60, $80).

H. All alcohol distributed at student parties must be done so by a bartender approved by the Assistant Deans. ($75, $125, expulsion) The bartender will be responsible for assuring that no alcohol is served to minors ($100, $200, expulsion) or to anyone who is obviously intoxicated. ($50, $100, $150)

IV. Athletic Events. Under no circumstances is alcohol to be consumed by participants at either indoor or outdoor athletic events.($50, $75, $125)

V. Other Public Places. The consumption of alcoholic beverages is specifically prohibited in any classroom, in the lobby and reception room of Campbell Hall, in F.S.K. auditorium, in the dining hall, and in the gym. ($25, $50, $75)

Section E. Use of Drugs, of Part II, College Rules of Residence, are hereby deleted and there is substituted therefor the following:

E. Illicit Drugs. Not less than once each school year, each student is given the College's statement of policy on the manufacture, possession, distribution and use of illicit drugs on the campus and at College activities in Annapolis Maryland. Each student is deemed to be familiar with that policy statement and will be held accountable by the College for any violations of the Policy which he or she may commit. The provisions of this Student Manual are intended to supplement and elaborate upon the College policy statement. In the case of any inconsistency between the policy statement and these provisions, the policy statement shall govern.

Paragraph 12 of the College policy statement on illicit drugs sets forth the applicable standard of conduct which students must observe:

> "The manufacture, possession, use, or distribution of illicit drugs by any individual on the College campus in Annapolis in contravention of the laws of Maryland, or by any individual as a part of any of the activities of the College (whether or not such activities occur on the campus) in contravention of the laws of Maryland, is contrary to College policy and strictly prohibited."

Paragraph 14 of the College policy statement on illicit drugs sets forth the sanction and penalties to which a student who violates the standard of conduct set forth in paragraph 12:

> "The violation of the standard of conduct stated in paragraph 12 [of the policy statement on alcoholic beverages] by a student of the College will subject the student, in the discretion of the Dean, suspension or expulsion from the College. A student may appeal a suspension or expulsion to the President....Violation of the standard of conduct stated in paragraph 12 by a student may also be referred by the College to law enforcement officials for possible prosecution. If the student is also and employee, the student will also be subject to the sanctions set forth in paragraph 15 [of the policy statement]."

The College is deeply concerned about the problems of alcohol and drug abuse. In the discretion of the Assistant Dean, Dean, or President, a student's continued enrollment at the College may be conditioned on the students willingness to enter and successfully complete a alcohol or drug abuse counselling or treatment program.

A list of local agencies whose primary work is with those who have substance abuse problems is given in Appendix D to the Student Manual.

APPENDIX D

This appendix contains a description of Federal trafficking (i.e., distribution) penalties for substances covered by the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. 811) and is taken from a Department of Justice publication entitled Drugs of Abuse (1989 Edition).... This appendix also contains a description prepared by the Department of Justice of Federal penalties and sanctions for illegal possession of a controlled substance. Legal sanctions for the unlawful possession or distribution of alcohol are found primarily in State statutes.
